

Redwood Vocabulary

Use the vocabulary in the boxes below to fill in the blanks.

redwood	cone	conservation
decomposer	canopy	understory
tannin	forest floor	food chain

1. The _____ is the top of the trees.
2. A Banana Slug is a _____, an animal that breaks down nutrients and recycles them back into the environment.
3. A redwood _____ contains many seeds, however very few will grow into tall trees.
4. _____ is a chemical that protects the tree against burrowing insects, fungus and fire, it also turns parts of the tree red.
5. The _____ is below the canopy.
6. If one species of animal goes missing in a habitat the whole _____ is affected.
7. The _____, is where the trees roots grow.
8. Forests need _____ in order to remain healthy and provide habitat for many animals.
9. The tallest tree in the world is a _____.

Redwood Vocabulary ANSWERS

Use the vocabulary in the boxes below to fill in the blanks.

redwood	cone	conservation
decomposer	canopy	understory
tannin	forest floor	food chain

1. The canopy is the top of the trees.
2. A Banana Slug is a decomposer, an animal that breaks down nutrients and recycles them back into the environment.
3. A redwood cone contains many seeds, however very few will grow into tall trees.
4. tannin is a chemical that protects the tree against burrowing insects, fungus and fire, it also turns parts of the tree red.
5. The understory is below the canopy.
6. If one species of animal goes missing in a habitat the whole food chain is affected.
7. The forest floor, is where the trees roots grow.
8. Forests need conservation in order to remain healthy and provide habitat for many animals.
9. The tallest tree in the world is a redwood.

